At the request of Rev. C. E. DEPARTMENT OF CHURCH SCHOOLS

Through the year there has maintained the modernization of our church schools, during which time the handicap in lack of equipment as been increasingly felt.

The reports on standards of efficiency as adopted by our last Annual Conference, have been all too few to enable one to give any adequate estimate of the progress made during the year.

Emphasis on evangelism has in some schools brought fine results and demonstrated the opportunity for the building of the Kingdom among children and young people. Great is the need of teachers who are trained for this important task!

During the year, Standard Training Schools have been held at Spokane and Cashmere; three one course, six day schools at following places: Dayton, Clarkston and Pomeroy, also one Community Training School at Walla Walla. At Deer Lake and Lake Chelan Institutes there were classes taught in Church School Methods. Our Director of Religious Education gave instruction in three standard training schools, in the summer months, in Montana, at Lucecock Park, at Kings Hill and at Glacier Park.

Twenty seven Daily Vacation Church Schools were conducted by or participated in, by our churches in the Columbia River Conference, with a total enrollment of 1,493.

A Week day School was conducted at Colville, in which the Methodist Church participated. About one hundred were enrolled, sixty of whom were from our church; also one at Freewater, with enrollment of 107 which was conducted by Brother and Sister McNeese for the period of five weeks.

Funds were not sufficient to carry out in full the plans adopted by the Conference a year ago. Most of the charges contributed nothing for the support of the work of the Conference Board. For this reason, it was impossible to have an office in Spokane. However, during the past month, headquarters have been opened at John W. Grahams, which gives hopeful outlook for the future development of Religious Education in our Conference. A central location is here provided where our books and other literature will be constantly on view. Mr. Graham will handle our books as there is demand for them.

PROGRAM FOR THE YEAR

1. That each pastor leads in encouraging Religious Education to his Church and community, by bringing the matter before his people at least quarterly by means of sermon, address, program or exhibit.
2. That every effort be made to conduct a Training Class on every charge, and to support the Training Schools planned for the Conference.
3. That major emphasis be placed on the conservation of our young people, and to that end we approve the plans made by our Director of Religion and pledge our co-operation.
4. That we shall attempt to provide sufficient funds to carry out such a program as is planned and will be planned during the year by taking a generous offering on Rally Day and sending the same to the Treasurer of the Conference Department of Church Schools.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EPWORTH LEAGUES to*COLUMBIA RIVER ANNUAL CONFERENCE—1925

We affirm our conviction that the Epworth League is essentially the primary organization for the young people of the Methodist Church. We express our faith in its program as it is adaptable to the needs of the young life of our church. We commend the General Officers of the Epworth League for their splendid plans and programs that are adaptable to any church or any community. We recommend a closer co-operation between the Epworth Leagues of the Conference and the General Office.

We are greatly gratified with the work done by the Epworth League Institutes that have been held within the Conference. The teaching and spirit of these Institutes have left lasting impression for good upon our young people.

We, therefore recommend that a Conference Commission on Epworth League work be elected by this Conference, and that this commission have charge of the Institute work within the Conference, and that by conferring with the District Superintendents, District and Local Officers of the Epworth League, may promote the welfare of our young people and if possible unify the Institute work within the Conference.

We submit the following names for this commission: Hubert C. Vincent, R. R. Martin, E. H. Winfield, Ralph I. Thomas, M. J. Perdue.

Respectfully submitted,

RALPH I. THOMAS,
Chairman.

DANIEL S. KERR,
Secretary.

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF EDUCATION

I. Personell of the Board

The Conference Board of Education in this Conference has been organized in accordance with the legislation of the recent General Conference. The constitution of the Board requires the election of its members in three different classes.

For members of the Board we nominate the following: Class I, term expires in 1926:

Ministers—Pastor at Ellensburg.

Superintendent of Spokane District.

Superintendent of Wenatchee District.

H. J. Wood, M. J. Perdue, Thomas Hardie.

Laymen—C. A. Leedy, W. S. McCrea, A. D. Butler, S. E. Chaffee.

Class II—Term expires 1927:

Ministers—Pastor at Moscow.

Pastor at Pullman.

Pastor at Cheney.

Superintendent at Moscow District.

Superintendent at Walla Walla District, Robert Brumblay.

Laymen—F. L. Pickett, Eugene Taylor, Floyd Daggett, Parker Barrett.

Class III—Term expires 1928:

Ministers—Pastor at Lewiston.

Ralph I. Thomas, E. C. Newham, J. S. Bell.

Laymen—Lloyd Deless, H. L. Johnsrud, J. E. Buchanan, C. T. Borg.

II. Kimball School of Theology

We heartily commend this young "SCHOOL OF THE PROPHETS" to the Church in this region, and more especially to our young men who are preparing themselves for the work of the Christian Ministry. Being our only Theological Institution in the Pacific Northwest, we ought to give to Kimball a large and hearty support. As Trustees from this Conference we nominate Professor H. V. Carpenter, and Rev. R. E. Smith. The proposal to transfer Kimball School of Theology from its present location to one contiguous to the Campus of the University of Washington in Seattle, meets with our approval. To further carry out this proposal we recommend the revival of the Joint Commission appointed two years ago, and we nominate the two above named trustees as commissioners, the appointment carrying with it full power to act.

III. College of Puget Sound

This institution is peculiarly the child of the Methodism of Washington. We take a laudible pride in the progress it has achieved in recent years in endowment, buildings and student body. We recommend the college to our people, both to their moral and financial support, however the latter, it is to be understood, is subject to such restrictions, as were embodied in the findings of the Commission on Unified Financial Appeal, which findings were adopted this session by the Conference. As Trustees we nominate Rev. W. B. Young and Parker Barrett.

IV. Willamette University

No institution occupies a more time-honored place in the educational history of the Northwest than this university. Its history is literally interwoven with that of the Commonwealth of Oregon, and for that matter with most of the Pacific Northwest. But its activities do not belong wholly to the past, for the field of its usefulness is constantly enlarging. This Conference wishes to assure the officers of the University of our abiding friendship and interest. As trustees from this Conference we nominate Rev. T. W. Jeffry and G. E. Hunt.

V. Wesley Foundation

We record our profound gratification over the deserved recognition which at last the Wesley Foundation is receiving in this Conference. Because of the attendance of almost four thousand students from Methodist homes at the State schools within the boundaries of our Conference for whose religious care we are responsible, the work of the "Foundations" becomes of supreme importance. In harmony with the recommendation of the "Commission on Unified Financial Appeal" made at this session, this Board respectfully urges our Pastors and local Board to open their pulpits throughout the year to the spokesmen for the "Foundations," and that the third Sunday of February, 1926, be designated as Wesley Foundation Day, at which time the religious interests of our young people in tax-supported schools shall be made the subject of sermon and address. As a part of this service an offering shall be taken for the Wesley Foundations within the Conference, the receipts to be divided according to the agreement adopted by the Conference of 1924.

For trustees of the Wesley Foundation at the Washington State Normal at Cheney, we nominate N. D. Showalter for 3 years; J. E. Buchanan for 2 years; and John Hazen for 1 year.

For trustees of the Wesley Foundation at the University of Idaho, J. Hugo Johnson for 1 year; Orland A. Scott for 2 years.

For trustees of the Wesley Foundation at the State College of Washington, N. M. Jones for 1 year; Robert Brumblay for 2 years; Harold O. Perry for 3 years.

VI. Conference Board of Church Schools

We appreciate the very constructive program being carried out by our Conference Superintendent of Church Schools, Rev. M. J. Perdue. In the success of the program of modern religious education we see involved the very destiny of Modern Protestant Christianity. With this in mind we call upon our pastors and churches everywhere to give that prominence to religious education which rightfully belongs to it. In harmony with the recommendation of the Commission on Unified Financial Appeal, we earnestly request our pastors and local Sunday School Board to apply the ordinary Rally Day Collection to our Conference Sunday School Board.

REPORT OF DEACONESS HOSPITAL, SPOKANE

To serve humanity in any form or degree is the greatest call of God to man. In fact, it is Godlike and in some degree following Him who "Went about doing good."

Our Deaconess Hospital in Spokane has been doing this work for about a third of a century. Conceived in the hearts of earnest deaconesses, fostered by a devout Board of Trustees, encouraged and sustained by the gifts of many people, and supervised by the Columbia River Annual Conference, this institution of charity and mercy has moved up through the years with firm and steady step, constantly increasing its capacity, enlarging its borders, adding buildings and equipment, improving its service, widening the horizon of its influence and ministries by keeping pace fully with the latest and best developments in the science and art of caring for the sick and suffering.

There has never been a time since its beginning that we have been without the Divinely inspired ministry of deaconesses. They have not only furnished wise and careful management but have furnished the leadership and atmosphere which have preserved this as a distinctively Christian hospital.

Few realize the vast scope of hospital work. After all that colleges and medical schools can do to prepare the young doctor, the laws of our state and the United States forbid him to open an office or practice until he has served one year in the hospital. So the hospital must put the finishing touches on the education and training of every doctor before he is allowed to prescribe for you or your family. It selects young women with proper educational foundation and adaptability and puts them in our Training Schools till sufficient knowledge of medicine and anatomy and care of the sick ranks next to the physician and surgeon. Add to this the high grade scientific care of the sick, the vast amount of charity, and the helpful religious work as indicated above with the incidental things done, it will give some idea of the scope covered by a well equipped, standardized hospital.

Your hospital has been functioning on all these lines. It has been my happy privilege during the last year, as Superintendent, to sign the diplomas of two promising young doctors and twenty nurses who have been graduated and gone out to battle with disease and help conserve human life.

It is a fact worthy of note that for the last three years while less than 50% of the graduate nurses who have taken the State Board Examination in Spokane have been able to pass, yet, everyone of the Deaconess's graduates has received her State papers. This indicates the thoroughness of the work of our Training School and greatly adds to the efficiency on the floors in the care of the patients.

We have a competent staff of 35 doctors, among whom are many of the most prominent medical, surgical and obstetrical men in the city.

From July 1st, 1924 to July 1st, 1925, 3,612 patients have been admitted, and 517 babies have been born, making a total of 4,129 patients for the year.

2,383 operations have been performed of which 775 were major and 1,608 minor. A total of 17,123 laboratory examinations have been made.

Revenue earned for the year from July, 1924 to July, 1925	$212,028.96
Free work and uncollectible accounts, which means free work to the hospital together totals.....	28,156.53
Leaving a balance of.....	$183,872.43
Expenses for the year total.....	$174,716.29
Leaving a net income for the year of.....	$ 9,156.14

Cash received during the year amounts to $177,230.75, which is $2,514.46 over and above expenses.

Owing to the heavy expense of replacing our heating plant this year at a cost of $10,000.00, the hospital was not able to pay interest on the Bonded Indebtedness out of the current income. For this we had to draw on the Sinking Fund, which with $10,000.00 paid July 1st to retire the first payment of our Bonds has entirely depleted our Sinking Fund. We begin the year before us with an empty treasury so far as our Subscription Fund is concerned, and this is the special part of our problem which this Conference must consider and carefully plan for the ensuing year.

The hospital has never been more largely patronized during any year than the one just closed. The months of July and August of this year, have been by far the heaviest months in the history of the institution, over 500 operations and 895 patients dismissed in 60 days. Increased patronage in hospitals does not always mean increased profits. So a large problem remains, and, this Conference must devise ways and means of carrying through successfully the recommendation of the Conference Commission, and raise at least $90,000 with which to retire that much of our Bonded Indebtedness. Rev. J. O. Hawk has worked hard and faithfully and some progress has been made, but the time has come for the Conference to do something larger and more adequate for our hospital than any man can do working single-handedly.

Prayerfully and gratefully submitted,

ROBERT WARNER,
Superintendent.

STATE OF CHURCH

We believe that the church of today is in the most hopeful stage of the whole period of recent transition; that in the whole field of our church activities there is every reason to be most optimistic; that the church is accepting the challenge of our inquiring youth; that there is a forward going, progressive emphasis; that the church is doing all possible to bring about the highest standard of Christian character and spiritual conduct.

We rejoice in the world-wide program and outlook of the Church.

We urge our churches to accept the challenge of the foreign-speaking peoples who are eager at our front and back doors.

We believe our churches are looking forward to larger co-operation with other denominations.

We believe that the rural church and rural church life in America is the most hopeful and encouraging. Let us not talk of the rural problem, but of rural opportunity.

We rejoice in the recent statement of the joint committee of the Board Bishops and department of rural work of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension: "That in communities where the Methodist Episcopal Church has full responsibility the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension should render aid and co-operate in adequately caring for the work, and, where the responsibility is divided with other denominations, equal adjustment should be made" in order that there not be a competitive program.

We urge our churches to be about the main business of the Church—making God and Jesus Christ real to ourselves and others.

THE BIBLE CAUSE

As in centuries gone by, so today, the Bible stands unshaken, the Book of books, the beacon light of Christendom, the hope of the world.

Therefore, we, the Columbia River Conference, in annual session assembled, record anew our love for and loyalty to the Christian Scriptures.

Be It Resolved:

First, that we pledge ourselves to the placing of an increased emphasis upon the Divine Message of the Scriptures as essential to the continued success of the Kingdom of God on earth.

Second, that we urge every member of our Conference to foster state legislation that will make possible the reading of the Bible in the public schools.

Third, inasmuch as the Bible is the way of life and essential to the moral integrity of the home and the nation, we resolve to do our utmost to encourage the reading of the Bible in the home and the establishment of the family altar.

Fourth, we enthusiastically pledge ourselves to the continued support of the American Bible Society in its magnificent work of disseminating the Scriptures throughout the world.

COMMITTEE ON CHARITIES AND REFORMS

From the days of Wesley until the present our church has always been in the forefront of every work whose objective has been the help and betterment of humanity.

We are glad for the various charitable and benevolent enterprises with which the church has had to do and for the excellent service rendered during the past year. Especially do we commend the efficient work of the Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals of our church. We also commend the work of mercy done by our Deaconess Hospitals at Wenatchee and Spokane.

Knowing as we do the religious and moral tragedies that have come to other nations as a result of a disregard for the Sabbath we urge the members of our church, both by example and precept to seek as far as possible for the closing of all Sunday motion picture shows, theaters, gambling houses and all degrading and immoral vices that prey upon the morals of human life. Believing that there are several causes of the juvenile delinquency and the so-called crime wave so painfully manifest in this country of ours and learning that over eighty per cent of the inmates of penitentiaries, reform schools and like institutions are the results of neglected childhood, we most heartily endorse the work of the Washington Children's Home Finding Society and its sister Society in Idaho.

We urge our people everywhere to heartily endorse and support the Child Labor Amendment bill.

J. L. RENTFRO

THE WOMEN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society is in a very creditable manner doing their part to carry out the great commission to evangelize the world. We note that they have some 700 missionaries in the field and have during the past year raised over two million dollars for maintaining this work. We are glad to know that the women of the Columbia River Conference have raised their full quota of $9,000.00.

We heartily commend this work and pledge our co-operation.

We recommend that pastors encourage the organization of auxiliaries on their parishes.

RESOLUTIONS

I. That we have greatly appreciated the presidency of beloved Bishop Shepard.

II. That we express our gratitude to The Board of Home Missions and Church Extension for the illuminating and instructive program:

- To Dr. George B. Dean for his splendid leadership in the field of Evangelism during recent months, and for his genial and helpful service during this Conference Session.
- To Dr. D. D. Forsyth for his masterful setting forth of conditions in America as related to the work of the Church. We feel that not only our Methodism, but also the whole Body of Christ is increasingly indebted to this Christian Statesman for his strategic leadership.
- To Dr. Byron H. Wilson, Mrs. Wilson, Rev. John Secor, Dr. Douglas Gornall, Edward Johnson, Miss Vogle and others who presented various phases of the work of the Board.
- The exhibits of the work done within the bounds of our Conference have been a veritable school of instruction.

IV. The Board of Pensions and Relief have again made us their debtors by sending so able a representative as the Rev. Dr. G. H. Spencer.

V. The 4:00 o'clock Minister's Hour has been greatly enjoyed by both pastors and laymen. The addresses by the Rev. Dr. I. M. Hargett of Kansas City have been timely, stimulating and convincing.

VI. The denominational College interests have been ably presented by Drs. Doney, Todd and Hickman.

VII. We are especially obligated to the Laymen's Association for the privilege of hearing Dr. E. O. Holland, President of the State College of Washington. His plea to the church to provide the phases of which the state system cannot provide, viz.: Religious Education, challenges our utmost loyalty to the thousands of students in the five tax-supported institutions of higher learning within the bounds of our Conference. It is gratifying to know that we are to have a part in this task through our Wesley Foundations. Dr. Holland faced us with a challenge and opportunity which we dare not avoid.

VII. Our own Pacific Advocate was never more essential to our success than today. We rejoice in the fine analysis of church activities as related to all of life so constantly presented by our superb editor, Edward Laird Mills. No wonder that he is more and more recognized as a master-mind in his chosen field. We accept as our subscription goal one subscriber to every ten members on every pastoral charge.

IX. Yakima is the queen city in her own right. Her wholesome loyalty to high ideals is everywhere manifest. Her natural and native kindliness has made our Conference a delight. Long live Yakima! Our genial host, Rev. W. B. Young and his corp of helpers have been the embodiment of the Yakima spirit.

X. The reports of the Conference proceedings as given in the Yakima Herald, The Yakima Republic, The Spokesman-Review, and Spokane Chronicle have reflected the growing interest of the public in church matters. We heartily thank the press for their hearty co-operation.

Respectfully submitted,

LOUIS THOMAS
H. S. RANDALL
NORMAN McCAY
ERNEST F. HAROLD

Whereas the Commission on Unified Financial Appeal has aided in giving this Conference a co-ordinated and constructive program; and

Whereas there will be constant need of adjustments and re-adjustments as our work develops;

Therefore be it resolved:

1. That a Permanent Commission on Unified Financial Appeal be constituted.
2. That this Commission be composed of:
 - a. The District Superintendents and the President and Secretary of the Laymen's Association;
 - b. Six ministers elected by the Conference :two for one year, two for two years and two for three years;
 - c. And six laymen elected by the Laymen's Association: one for one year, two for two years and three for three years; provided, however, that those serving for the year 1926 be F. L. Pickett, Fred Kemp, Logan Roberts, A. W. Kershaw, C. J. Atwood and F. L. Daggett.
3. Said Commission shall bear all interests where the raising of money is involved and shall present to this Conference suggested methods of procedure.

Your Commission for the study of the Benevolent and Educational interests of the Conference looking toward a unified plan and the co-ordination of all financial appeals submits the following report:

After having met and heard the representations of all those interests desirous of securing funds from the Charges of our Conference, we recommend:

FIRST: That the Hospitals of our Conference be given the right of way in their financial appeal. The Commission further recommends that the Spokane and Moscow Districts be allotted to the Maria Beard Deaconess Hospital in Spokane, and the Wenatchee and Walla Walla Districts be allotted to the Washington Central Deaconess Hospital in Wenatchee for a period of two years; and that each Hospital be permitted to place a man in the field or take such other action as may seem wise to secure subscriptions to cover their bonded indebtedness.

SECOND: That we recognize the imperative need of increasing the income of our Conference Claimants. We therefore recommend that the Columbia River Conference Claimants' Endowment Association of the Methodist Episcopal Church be requested to formulate a program looking forward to an aggressive campaign for funds, said campaign to begin a year from this Conference; and that during the interim they shall make a diligent search to find a suitable man who will lead in this campaign.

THIRD: The Commission commends the College of Puget Sound and the Kimball School of Theology to our people, but we deprecate any public appeal for funds for these institutions.

FOURTH: The Commission heartily endorses the action of the Conference in setting aside the Sunday School Rally Day Collection for the Conference Board of Sunday Schools and urges the pastors to secure as liberal an offering as possible on that day.

FIFTH: The Commission heartily commends the work of the Wesley Foundation at the seat of our tax-supported schools and we recommend that the third Sunday in February be set aside as Wesley Foundation day at which time the claims of the Wesley Foundation be presented to our people, and that a special offering shall be taken at that time for the support of this work; and that the pastors of the several charges open their pulpits to the Wesley Foundation workers.

Respectfully submitted,

N. M. JONES,
Chairman.
CHAS. L. CREESY,
Secretary.

Conference Program

In order that we may facilitate the transaction of the business of the Conference and devote more time to the consideration of many important reports of our Conference Boards and Commissions, be it hereby resolved:

1. That the Friday and Saturday morning sessions of the Annual Conference of 1926 be reserved entirely for the consideration of Conference business;

2. That the Secretary be instructed to invite the various Connectional Boards, Commissions and Schools to have their representatives appear at the seat of Conference on the first two days of the session, if traveling schedules can be so arranged;

3. That as far as possible matters not directly relating to the business of the Conference be scheduled for other hours than the morning session;

4. That we request our presiding Bishop that no business sessions of the Conference or the Cabinet be held on Sunday, and also that the District Superintendents schedule no Quarterly Conferences to be held on Sunday. On motion of Orland A. Scott, seconded by Norman McCay, was carried by the unanimous vote of Conference.

ORLAND A. SCOTT.

RESOLUTION CONCERNING SUMMER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Inasmuch, as the desirability of establishing a Summer School of Theology for the more thorough preparation of the undergraduates, of the Conferences of the Northwest, is becoming more evident every year; and

Inasmuch as the Oregon and The Puget Sound Conferences have, through the Chairmen of their respective Boards of Examiners, indicated to the Board of Examiners of this Conference during the present session, their readiness to co-operate in the establishment of such a Summer School of Theology, and the Board of Examiners of this Conference have approved the plan, therefore be it

Resolved, that this Conference ratifies such action and approves of the selection of a representative of the Board of Examiners of this Conference to perfect details of such a School of Theology under joint auspices during the summer of 1926, at Kimball School of Theology, and that each undergraduate be required to attend such School of Theology for the review of his studies, lectures and final examinations. No exceptions shall be made without the permission of the Chairman and Registrar of the Conference Board of Examiners of this Conference.

MEMOIRS

James Callahan was born in Indiana, March 24, 1865, where he grew to manhood. In 1885, he was married to Miss Levina English and to this union there was one daughter, now Mrs. C. A. Couplin who resides in New Mexico. Mrs. Callahan passed on in 1904. In early manhood Mr. Callahan was converted and entered the ministry of the United Brethren Church, serving charges in Iowa and Minnesota for several years. In 1905, he came West and joined the Columbia River Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. On August 29, 1907, he was married to Mrs. Blanche Fritts who labored with him in the serving of many charges in Eastern Washington. In 1922, he took the retired relationship and on February 14, 1925, passed from this life into that better one beyond. Funeral services were held in Spokane, where he had been living, at the First Methodist Church in charge of Dr. T. W. Jeffrey. He is survived by his widow, one daughter, a step-son, two brothers and one sister.

Work, for the night is coming,
Under the sunset skies
While their bright tints are glowing
Work while the daylight flies.
Work till the last beam fadeth,
Fadeth to shine to no more
Work, for the night is coming
When man works no more.

John William McDougall was born in Ontario, April, 1862. He was converted in January, 1886, and licensed to preach in 1887. He came to Michigan in April, 1889, and was admitted to the Michigan Conference the fall of the same year. He was ordained as an Elder in 1891, and was transferred to the Oregon Conference in 1901, and stationed at Grants Pass. Later he served at Albany and Mount Tabor Churches in the same Conferences remaining in each charge 3 years. While pastor at Mount Tabor a new church was built. For 6 years he was a superintendent of the Portland District. In 1916, he was transferred to the Columbia River Conference and appointed to St. Paul's Church, Spokane, where he remained for 4 years.

He was delegated to the General Conference from Oregon Conference in 1908, and from the Columbia River Conference in 1920. He served for more than 3 years as a member of the Finance Department of the Board of Education under Dr. Hancher. Last fall he was made Secretary of the Conference Claimant's Fund serving until October 1st, when on the advice of his physician he took leave of absence for a few months' rest and died suddenly a few hours after arriving in Seattle on Saturday, October 18, 1924.

He was married in 1887, and his widow survives. He received the Degree of Doctor of Divinity from Willamette University of which he was an interested trustee for many years. He possessed a sweet and borderly spirit in all relationships in life and was much loved in every community where he worked and was highly esteemed by all his brothers in the ministry. He was an earnest Evangelistic Preacher, a faithful superintendent and an ideal pastor. He knew the joy of soul-winning and in many trying experiences his faith in the Saviour and joy of the Holy Spirit gave him courage and bravery to fulfill a splendid service in the Church of God.

In his death not only the Columbia River Conference but all Methodism lost one of its most highly esteemed members. Faithful Servant of God, well done. You have discharged every order of the great Captain of our Salvation and now you have entered into the rest that remaineth for the people of God.

The funeral services were held in Seattle, Tuesday, October 21st, 1925, in charge of the pastor of the First Methodist Church, Dr. J. Ralph Magee.

Abbie Fuller Chandler, widow of Rev. Perry Chandler of the Columbia River Conference, died at the home of her son, Perry F. Chandler, in Canyon City, Grant County, Oregon, on March 28, 1925, after a five-weeks' illness due to a fall and a broken hip. Funeral services were held at the Methodist Episcopal Church in Canyon City, conducted by the pastor, Rev. E. L. Clower.

Deceased was born in Augusta, Maine, November 10, 1841, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Fuller. She was married on the 25th day of July, 1873, to Perry Chandler, then a pastor in the Maine Conference. To this union three sons were born, Perry F., Ralph and Webster A., the latter two deceased, the former a resident of Canyon City, Oregon. With her husband she served pastorates in the Maine and New York East Conferences until 1891, when they were transferred to the Columbia River Conference, their first charge being the Union Park Methodist Church at Spokane. During their 17-year stay in the West, they served churches at Dayton, Washington, Pendleton, La Grande, Wasco, Heppner, Grass Valley and Goldendale, returning to the East in 1908. Until the death of her husband in December, 1923, they resided at Newton Centre, Massachusetts. In the spring of 1924, she moved to Canyon City, Oregon, to spend her remaining days with her son.

She was a devoted Christian wife and mother.

Susan D. Overton Barrett was born at McComb, Ill., December 6, 1840, being the third child in a family of eleven. At an early age she was converted and lived ever after a consistent Christian life. At the age of 21 she was married to Richard Barrett who left immediately after the wedding to serve in the Union Army, remaining in the service until the close of the war. Upon returning from the war he entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church and was stationed first at Plattsville. His next work was in the City of Chicago, where Mrs. Barrett had the privilege of being present at the meeting where Francis E. Willard organized the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

In 1877, they came west and joined the Columbia River Conference where they served the following charges: Boise Valley, Summerville, Yakima, Alder Creek, Pilot Rock, Asotin and Emmett, Idaho. Here it became necessary for them to step aside from the active ministry and they settled on a homestead where they lived 19 years. The last 15 years of her life were spent in their home at Emmett, Idaho, in loving loyalty to Christ and the Church.

Five children were born to Brother and Sister Barrett of whom three survive. James, residing in Berkley, Cal., Grace and Myrtle, who reside in Emmett, Idaho.

Mrs. Barrett was a gifted woman in many ways and was a real helpmate to her husband during his long ministry.

Her earthly pilgrimage of 83 years, 8 months and 9 days ended peacefully on August 15, 1924. Funeral services were held at the hour of morning worship in the Methodist Church, her pastor, Rev. Geo. W. Barnes, officiating. The body rests beside that of her husband in the Riverside Cemetery.

"He giveth His beloved sleep."

John A. Smith was born on a farm in West Virginia, August 9, 1851, and passed away in the parsonage home at Mountain Home, Idaho, September 8, 1925, at the age of 74 years, 30 days.

In 1851, he moved with his parents to a farm near Jasper, Ohio, where he continued to live until the spring of 1872, when he went to Decatur, Illinois, to make his home with an aunt, his mother dying in 1863, and his father being in the Union Army.

He was converted during the winter of 1869, at Jasper, and there joined the Methodist Episcopal Church remaining an active worker until his death.

In addition to a common school education he received his teacher's diploma from the State Normal School at Lebanon, Ohio, and followed the teaching profession for a number of years, one of which was spent as Principal of Methodist Seminary at Salt Lake City, this being in 1892.

June 15, 1881, he married Priscilla J. Milburn, a teacher also, and they held many positions together in the years that followed. She, with the two sons, Roy C. and Howard M., survive.

In 1894, he heard and heeded the call to preach the Gospel and served one year as a local preacher as a missionary to the Mormons in Nephi. In 1896, he joined the Montana Conference and served the following charges: New Chicago, Philipsburg, Hamilton and Red Lodge. At the Conference of 1906, he was transferred to the Columbia River Conference and was placed at Oroville where he remained for one year. For eight years he was given work in this Conference and in 1914, was granted the retired relation. Since that time, however, he has been preaching most of the time as a supply and at the time of his death was just completing a year's work at Mountain Home, Idaho.

The funeral services at Mountain Home were conducted by Rev. H. W. Parker, assisted by Rev. S. A. Oliver of Boise, Rev. C. E. Mason and Rev. Taylor. Mrs. Smith and the sons then took the remains to Butte, Montana, where services were conducted by Rev. C. L. Clifford, assisted by Rev. H. K. Holtzinger, Rev. Chas. F. Wolfe and Rev. Bartlett. Burial was in the Mt. Moriah Cemetery, Butte, Montana.

RESOLUTIONS

Be it resolved, that the thanks of the Laymen's Association be tendered to the pastor and the officials and members of the First M. E. Church of Yakima for the courtesies extended to the laymen at this Conference.

Resolved, that we call the attention of the District Superintendents to the advisability of encouraging District Lay Associations to function in each district or subdivision thereof, under the general supervision of the Laymen's Association of the Columbia River Conference.

We congratulate the Methodist officary, ministers and membership on the forward step in the almost unanimous approval of the two Constitutional Amendments voted upon today by the Annual and Lay Electoral Conferences.

Be it resolved, that we voice our deep interest in the spiritual life of our Methodist students in tax-supported institutions, and commend the work of our Wesley Foundations; also, we recognize the importance of our church schools, including the Kimball School of Theology, College of Puget Sound and Willamette University. (Adopted September 11, 1925.)

Also that the Chairman and Secretary of this Association be requested to present this resolution at once to the Bishop and Conference. (Adopted September 11, 1925.)

Nobody knows when Fire or Lightning or Wind Storm will rage and destroy. Somewhere every day church or home property is burning.

Legal reserve for the protection of its policyholders the same as stock companies. Insures Churches, Parsonages, Property of Ministers, Homes and Personal Effects of Church Members. NO AGENTS. DEAL DIRECT.

Policies now in effect over SEVENTY-ONE MILLION DOLLARS ($71,000,000.00).
